

A central image of Shah Rukh Khan in a black tuxedo with a white lapel stands against a dark background. Surrounding him are various film stills: at the top left, a man in a white shirt with arms outstretched; top right, a man and woman embracing; middle left, a man and woman in a close embrace; middle right, a man in a suit looking at a woman; bottom left, a man and woman in a romantic pose; bottom right, a close-up of a man's face with blood; and bottom center, a man and woman in a dynamic pose. The background is a mix of warm and cool tones with a bokeh effect.
