

We love functionality, but we also love fun, that's why we are most thrilled when both are combined. With this mindset our designers get inspiration for new ideas from all over the world. Finding and working with brave and innovative designers is an important part of our brand strategy.

Since 2015 we offer cool lifestyle products, amusing accessories and extraordinary gift items. Many of our products have become very popular classics and are available in many countries all over the world. Our passion for exceptional products, our dedication to our work and the commitment to our customers are a strong motivation for our everyday business.

A big thanks to all of you who have accompanied us on our way!

We present:

Yağmur, sales assistant at Winkee

Welcome, Yağmur!

We're happy you took the time to be with us. For those who might not know you yet: you are a Sales Assistant with us – essentially a real hub between customers, the field team, trainees, and the everyday office routine. Tell us: what exactly do you do all day?

First of all, thank you for the invitation! My daily work is a pretty varied mix: I process orders, I'm part of the trade fair team, I handle complaints and respond to customer inquiries. Most customers probably know me because I regularly contact them about backorders or deal with their requests. And on top of that, I'm also responsible for training our apprentices. That means I support them in their daily work, explain processes, answer their questions, and sometimes I'm simply someone who listens when things aren't going so smoothly.

Sounds like you're the good soul in the background who keeps everything running...

That's kind of you to say – but yes, in a way that's true. I'm often the first point of contact when questions come up or something doesn't work, and then I try to find a solution in the interest of our customers. I'd say I'm someone who stays calm, works in a structured way, and tries to keep an overview – even when the phone is ringing, the email inbox is overflowing, and someone is standing at my desk at the same time. Luckily, I can multitask. (laughs)

You did your apprenticeship with us and, apart from a short break, you've been with us for eight years now. Crazy, right?

Yes, indeed. I can hardly believe how quickly time has passed. I did my apprenticeship here and since this year I've become a trainer myself, which I find especially rewarding because I can now pass on my knowledge to young people – at the very place where I once started. It makes me proud to keep developing both professionally and personally, and to be able to guide our apprentices through their training with my experience. And of course, to support the team as well.

That's really beautiful, but let's get back to Winkee. If you had to explain to an outsider what Winkee actually does, what would you say?

I'd say: We sell good vibes! (laughs) Our range consists of original gift items – some funny, some practical, many surprising. Whether for birthdays, Christmas, or just because, our products put a smile on people's faces. And that's what makes it so special: you're not just selling goods, but little moments of happiness that bring joy.

Is there a product from our range that you'd always enjoy giving as a gift yourself?

Oh yes, there are quite a few. But I really love the mugs with the cute animals – they're always a hit, whether at the office or privately. And then, of course, the little gadgets that look totally crazy at first glance, but somehow everyone ends up wanting them. But my personal favorite is definitely the Dreamcatcher Lamp. Sometimes I think: Who comes up with this stuff? And then I laugh, because that's exactly what we're about.

What do you value most about working at Winkee – apart from the product range?

Definitely the team, and especially the sense of togetherness. I think it's great that we support each other and can also share a laugh, even in stressful times. It certainly helps that we've all worked together for many years – we're a well-rehearsed team. I also think it's fantastic that we make a job offer to every apprentice after their training. Half of my current colleagues started here as apprentices. That shows we really value long-term collaboration.

Now be honest: what has been your most unusual moment with a customer or colleague?

Oh, there are quite a few. But what I remember most is my French colleague and sales representative Fabrice, who struggles with my name every single time. By now he just calls me "Yamour," which sounds a bit like "L'amour." So, I take it as a compliment. (laughs) On the phone, people often expect to hear a man at first – many can't immediately place the name "Yağmur." The surprise when I answer is usually obvious, but we mostly laugh about it together.

Is there something about your job that you particularly enjoy?

Definitely the variety. No two days are the same. I enjoy working with so many different people – both inside and outside the company. And I like noticing that my work really makes a difference: when a complaint is resolved well, when an apprentice suddenly makes progress, or when a customer simply says thank you.

And what sometimes annoys you?

When things are made unnecessarily complicated – especially processes that could be handled much more simply. Or when emails come in with "Everything urgently needed ASAP" but in the end it wasn't urgent at all. (laughs) But I've learned to take it easy.

Finally, if you had to describe your workday with one image – what would it be?

Oh wow... good question! Probably something like a multitasking image: someone on the phone, writing emails, covered in post-its – and still smiling. But that's exactly what it's like for me: you're constantly on the move, and that's what I enjoy.

Thank you, Yağmur – for your insights and for all your work. We're so glad you're with us!

Thank you too – always a pleasure. I really enjoyed the interview as well.
